

Dyslexia-friendly and edited for lower reading ages

GREAT DEALS ON TEEN INTEREST BOOKS WITH READING AGES 6, 7, 8 AND 9

Teen Fiction

FROM
£84.99

A collection of gritty, gripping, fast-paced and relevant stories by award-winning authors with many new titles for 2017. With reading ages 6, 7, 8 and 9 and a teen interest level, these books are great for reluctant readers. All books have off-white paper and special typeface, making them particularly suitable for dyslexic readers.

Teen Fiction (Reading Ages 7-9)

- Books written by well-known and award winning authors, such as Alan Gibbons, Robert Swindells, Keith Gray and Caroline Lawrence.
- The books use a special typeface and off-white paper to make them dyslexia friendly.
- All titles also feature a layout to make reading easier for reluctant and struggling readers.
- These books are punchy, with accessible word-lengths supplemented by plenty of chapter breaks to provide rest stops for readers who have not yet built reading stamina (while cliff-hangers incentivise them to return!)
- Support struggling students with a range of accessibility features, motivate reluctant readers with clever high-low editing and challenge higher achievers as bitesize speed-reads.
- A great selection of 13 of the latest books is available for just £84.99

*These books are submitted for levelling for Renaissance Learning's Accelerated Reader programme. For details of how each title matches a variety of reading programmes, visit www.gardnereducation.co.uk

Teen Fiction - Go! (Reading Age 6)

- Provides entry level material for students that are seriously struggling readers.
- The language is carefully edited by experts to be at the right level.
- The books have been extensively trialled with students to ensure suitability.
- High quality illustrations throughout the books to support reading.

Wham! (NON-FICTION Reading Age 6)

- It's kill or be killed in the world of food chains, and Sean Callery explores chains in four exciting habitats as part of this series. Perfect for those studying the environment, or who just prefer non-fiction.
